Road of Return

Epanodos* is a Legal – Private Judiciary non profit organization which is supervised by the Ministry of Justice, Transparency and Human Right.

It is the first formal sector which concerns and cares for those first released from prison that was developed in our country.

According to the action upon which it was found (Pres. Dec. Boo/ 2003) its concerns itself with “information on professional issues, economic support as well as the preparation and moving forward of the general social returning to everyday of those still imprisoned and those released from prison.

Epanodos

For the completion of its goal:

- Programs are organized inside the prison for the preparation of the inmates in order for them to be “incorporated” into the social professional and family environment.
- It provides to the recently incarcerated counseling on issues that concerns the legal and social situation, their psychological support for themselves and their families with specialized professional social workers, psychologists, legal advisors (lawyers), work counseling.
- There are workshops on how to use computers, small items building, learning the Greek language, getting to know the Greek culture, learning about the theatre, music and photography.

- It notifies businesses and those incarcerated individuals for the availability of work in Collaboration with O.A.E.Δ and often major sources which it encourages the offer of jobs to those who have been
- It supports the development of social work places by the incarcerated themselves (for example, KOIN. Σ. ΕΠ. «New Horizons”)
- It provides temporary hospitality and food to newly incarcerated, it “covers” their immediate needs and they support the personal problems they encounter.
- It informs and deals with sensitivity in society about the problems the inmates incarcerated and more specifically the underge offenders.
- It promotes scientific research in the area of social returning and being incorporated into society and organizes scientific conferences for the promotion and dealing with criminal collapse elapse.
- It reinforces every activity private sector and volunteer based organizations who look toward the fight against social isolation of the recently incarcerated.
- It presents yearly a display if all that has taken place (as far as activities, etc.) to the Minister of Justice and it works on proposals which lead to potential institutional measures and they take on activities in the area of the after the post incarceration care.
